THE GARAGE LECTURE: 'In-yer-face': When art sets out to shock

TUESDAY 26 JUNE, 10.30AM-11.45AM

Bring your year 12 students along to experience an HE style lecture in The Garage Theatre.

In 1995, at the Royal Court Theatre Upstairs, Sarah Kane's first play Blasted opened. It's scenes of brutality, depravity and cannibalism caused one of the biggest theatrical scandals London had ever seen. Daily Mail critic Jack Tinker was clearly not impressed with this "disgusting feast of filth", but was it really so different to the art and performance that came before?

This lecture explores the desire to make art that shocks; charting our changing attitudes to what is acceptable, what is intolerable, and what can even count as entertainment

LENGTH: 1 hour, followed by 15 minutes of discussion

BOOKINGS: Attendance is free but capacity is limited so booking is essential.

WORKSHOPS FOR SCHOOLS

Our experienced dance and drama tutors can organise bespoke workshops for year 12 & 13 students. Whether you want to focus on assessment preparation, audition technique or explore areas outside of the syllabus, we will work with you to design a workshop to meet your needs, whilst giving students a taste of the type of teaching they might experience if they chose to progress onto our HNC course.

IN-SCHOOL HNC AUDITIONS

We can send our HNC team into school to run an audition and interview panel for your year 13 students. You tell us the date and time, whether this is lunchtime, after school or during lessons, and we will provide posters, flyers and a sign-up sheet. Whether we see 1 or 100 students, we want to make sure that everyone has a chance to find out more about the course and audition for a place.
